Announcements:

- Attendance – 19 members and 3 guests
- Welcome Our Newest Member – Kango Arisa

Table Topics Tidbits:

- We had four TT speakers this week: John Arnott, David Frawley, Laurence Schilthuis, and Kelly Patterson
- John Arnott told about his college adventures on 3/28/89 (Near Miss Day).
- Laurence Schilthuis described travelling from Scotland to a seamy area of Houston to meet his favorite Blues singer.
- David Frawley, thinking John Arnott's college story seemed a little mild, suggested he might be holding back the juicier stories since he was sitting next to his mom.
- Kelly Patterson revealed she could have been an astronaut because she likes playing in the dirt.

Laughs, Laments and Lessons...A Speaker's Tale:

- David Monck gave a fascinating speech about possible alternative interpretations for the number 6-6-6, including ties to significant dates in Islam's history.
- Charlene Sims created detailed visuals about setting boundaries. She detailed the important difference between being responsible "for" others as opposed to being responsible "to" others.
- John Arnott Sr. gave a heartfelt tribute to his son, John Arnott, describing a man for all seasons. He told of all he'd done for our club and then presented him with the 2015 Toastmaster of the Year award.

And the Winners are...sitting all in a row with the Luck of the Irish!

- Best Table Topic – David Frawley
- Best Evaluator – David Frawley
- Best Speaker – John Arnott Sr.

Did You Know?

- Near Miss Day (March 23rd) was established in recognition of the day in 1989 when a 300 meter wide asteroid, Asclepius, flew past Earth, missing it by only 450,000 miles. If it had passed 6 hours sooner, the mountain-sized asteroid would have devastated life on our planet.
