TNT's Meeting Express
Weekly Meeting Recap for TNT Toastmasters
Club Meeting 4/20/17

Welcome to TNT's Meeting Express! Your weekly report summarizing your club meeting.

Announcements:

- Attendance – 20 members and one returning guest, George LePoris

Table Topics Tidbits:

- We had three TT speakers this week: Audra Hooper, David Monck and Bruce Arfsten.
- Audra's alternative to the high five is the fist bump. Her 5-year-old loves to give her fist bumps and then blow them up. However, when given a choice between playing Go Fish or buying mom flowers...Go Fish wins!
- David prefers the fist salute to the high five. A special memory is when he gave a fist salute to a little girl and her father on a train. The little girl returned the salute.
- Bruce loves the extended high fives and demonstrated his technique...a combination high five, chest bump, man hug. But don't linger too long on that hug. Then it just gets creepy.

Laughs, Laments, and Lessons...A Speaker's Tale:

- Laurence Schilthuis painted beautiful visual pictures of his worldly travels during his Ice Breaker. He's lived in seven different countries including South Africa, Scotland, and Holland...all while still in high school! His love of music and adventure brought him to the US when he was just 26 but he stays close to friends and family around the world. Now he's getting used to his new retirement with his wife Gina.
- Carrie Cain demonstrated the cleaning power of Norwex, the product that lets you clean less and live more. She amazed everyone when she removed permanent Sharpie pen marks from a floor tile with nothing more than a little Elbow Grease (product) and a damp rag. You can also toss all your plastic and aluminum foil with Norwex lids.
- Julie Davis took the chance to practice her contest speech one more time before Friday's competition. After hiding all her life, Julie's Inner Child is ready to take on the world.

And the Winners are...

- Best Table Topic – Bruce Arfsten
- Best Evaluator – Shelley Cramm
- Best Speaker – Julie Davis
